CHANGE OF TRADE MARK.

THE L. & R. THE STAR.

TRADE L. & R. MARK. FORMERLY

Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPERPHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented. Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

——Look out for your registration.

——All the churches are open to-day.

——In ward No. 2 yesterday 64 whites and 107 colored voters registered.

——There are but a few more centennializers on hand in this community.

——Bryant Lunn, Robert Thrower, and other colored Democrats, will speak at Metropolitan Hall Tuesday evening.

——C. B. Green, Esq., the clever editor of the Durham Tobacco Plant, was in this city yesterday. We are glad to know that the Plant prospers.

——The presentation of the gold-headed cane to General W. R. Cox has been postponed until Friday evening. It was to have come off Tuesday evening at Metropolitan Hall.

——Yesterday information was received at our Executive Department that copies of the laws passed at the first session of the 44th Congress had been forwarded for distribution in this State.

——Last night, about 9 o'clock, John Mitchell, col., was arrested by Paul Lincke special watchman, moving suspiciously among the bales at Cotton Exchange. He was locked up for examination this morning

——Messrs. R. H. Battle, Jr., and W. H. Pace, Esq., of this city, speak at Lashley's X Roads Tuesday. Those in this city desiring to attend can leave on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line at 6 a. m. and return at 6 p. m.

——Raleigh Lodge I. O. O. F. will hold a meeting Monday evening. We are requested to state that business of vital importance to the Lodge will be transacted, and every member is earnestly requested to attend promptly.

——On Friday 17 South Carolina negroes passed through Goldsboro en route to New York, from whence they intend to sail for Liberia where they intend to settle. They say that taxes are too high and times too hard in South Carolina for them to remain there.

——Hon. A. S. Merrimon is in the city. He will address the Mechanics' Tilden and Vance club Thursday evening, at Metropolitan Hall. Major Seaton Gales will also address the club on that evening if he recovers from his present indisposition in time to do so.

——Last Tuesday morning a gentleman left this city at 9 a. m. and arrived in New York the next morning at 8:30. He transacted business during the day of his arrival, took a 6:30 p. m. train, and arrived home the following afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. This is what we call quick time and a rapid trip.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina, at the last June term, in the case of State vs. Colvert, decided that Registrars and Judges of Election have the right on election day to examine into the eligibility of any person offering to vote and to hear evidence thereon, although such person may take the oath required by law.

A Stabbist.

Yesterday James Jeffreys, white, was before Justice of the Peace Magnin, charged with three cases of stabbing. This is the list of his sanguinary operations:

Friday night, near Hayes' plantation, about three miles south of this city, Isaac Hinton, colored, badly in the back; near the same place, about two weeks ago, T. W. McCraw severely in the side, and about a month ago, W. T. Clark badly in the hand. He was jailed in default of a $500 bail bond in each case.

A False Report.

We learn that a false report has been circulated in the southern part of this county to the effect that Hon. J. J. Davis offered a bill in Congress to increase the tax on spirits.

This is false. No such bill was introduced by Mr. Davis or by any other person.

HALIFAX COUNTY.

Political—Cotton—Hymeneal—Weldon Fair.

[Special correspondence Raleigh News.]

WELDON, N. C., Oct. 27, '76.

After mixing freely with the citizens of this good old county, I find that the pulse for a grand and a glorious Democratic triumph in November never beat higher. Many who have not voted since the war will go to the polls if they have to be hauled for miles in carts. Let this enthusiasm continue a few days longer and Vance and Tilden will carry the State by an overwhelming majority. Your noble and conservative course has shown the NEWS to be the fearless tribune of the people.

THE COTTON CROP

will be [illegible] more clear money [illegible] did last year. Especially those who took your timely advice in trying to make more of their provisions and fertilizers at home. Not more than half the mortgages will be given hereafter. Thus you see a brighter day is dawning. When the sun of Radicalism is set you must give more of your time to the suggestion of wise plans for our farmers. You now have five subscribers where the agricultural journals have one.

HYMENEAL.

The town of Enfield, in this county, was visited to-day by a select company from various places, in order to witness the solemnization of matrimony at the residence of Col. D. B. Bell. The talented and youthful looking Principal of the Graham High School, of Graham, N. C., led the beautiful and accomplished Miss Carrie E. Bell to Hymen's altar, at 12 o'clock M. Rev. T. R. Owen, of Tarboro, tied the silken knot. Although it was not my happy lot to witness the ceremony, I learn that "all went merry as a marriage bell." The happy couple passed through this place on this evening's train on a bridal tour north. The bridesmaids and groomsmen accompanied them to this place.

THE WELDON FAIR,

like all others, has not been so largely attended as it would have been had it not been for the Centennial exhibition and the determination of the tax-payers to put down Radical rule and restore honest government.

Keep the ball in motion for Uncle Samuel J. Tilden and honest Zebulon B. Vance, and the Old North State will stand with Indiana, West Virginia and New York by the grave of Radicalism, and look at carpet-baggers weep the morning after the November election.

HALIFAX.

The Tilden and Vance Flag.

Yesterday morning, about ten o'clock, the monster flag-pole, one hundred and forty feet above ground, of the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club, was successfully raised, at the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets. The work was a very arduous and difficult one, and great credit is due to Messrs. John Cayton and W. M. Carter, who superintended the job, for the skillful manner in which it was executed. Mr. Andrew Hannaford was exceedingly useful and merits the thanks of the club. At about five o'clock a beautiful United States flag, decked off with a streamer bearing the talismanic words "Tilden and Vance" was raised to the lofty top amid the enthusiastic plaudits of the large crowd that had assembled to witness the ceremony. It floated proudly in the breeze beneath the crowning broom, which is typical of the clean sweep that our standard-bearers, National and State, will make on Tuesday week. The committee on the part of the club, who had the matter directly in charge, were Dr. L. C. Manly, Dr. D. E. Everett, David Anderson, Sherwood Hoywood and Alex. Kreth.

Runaway—Boy Hurt.

Yesterday afternoon, about two o'clock, the mule cart of Rufus Jones, colored, an employee on the farm of Dr. Geo. W. Blackwell, about two miles south of this city, was standing at the eastern end of the market house in front of the fish stall of Ben Holt, colored, attended by his son William, a boy about ten years old. Without thinking of any harm Hall dashed a lot of trash down near the mule, frightening it so that it started down Wilmington street at a break-neck speed. The boy William was thrown out near Dr. James McKee's office, and stunned for a while. At last accounts Rufus was picking up the pieces of his cart and wondering where the mule had got to. The boy soon recovered, the blows which he received about the head and back not being of a serious character.

Larceny of an Overcoat.

Yesterday Junius Bassmore, col., was arraigned before Mayor Manly on the charge of stealing an overcoat from the Exchange Hotel, Hillsboro street. The theft was proven, and Mr. Bassmore now reposes in jail in default of a $200 bond for his appearance at the next term of our Superior Court.

U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY R. C. BADGER.

Incendiary Speeches to the Negroes of Craven—"Old John Brown's Soul is Marching On."—An Ashantee War Dance in James City—Let the White People Read.

NEWBERN, Oct. 27, 1876.

[Special Correspondence of the News.]

R. C. Badger, of your city, addressed the negroes of this city at the Court House to-night. Indeed he has been delivering a series of political harangues, as he himself styles them, during the session of the United States Court. He favored James City, the negro town across Trent river, with his presence last night and there delived an incendiary speech of two hours' length, in which he told them, among other things, that any colored man who would vote for Tilden and Vance was a criminal unworthy the ballot and deserving the scorn and contempt of his race. He hesitated not to say, and assure them that the United States Senate would refuse to declare Tilden elected, in the event he should receive a majority of the votes of the Electoral College, and would most surely and certainly reject the returns from South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida, provided those States voted for Tilden. To crown all, not content with deluding the ignorant but well intending audience; not satisfied with exciting prejudice in the bosoms of the two hundred negroes present, this man Badger, aptly styled the "degenerate son of a noble sire," when concluding, requested that the soul stirring melody of John Brown, which embodied the first principle and the gist of Republicanism, be sung as a special favor to him. Waving his hat and wildly gesticulating he stood among them shouting at the top of his voice and keeping time, while the negroes, perfectly wild, went through the most disgusting and humiliating spectacle a white man ever witnessed. God may forgive Badger, but the people never can.

The County Canvass.

A very small crowd attended the discussion of the county candidates yesterday at Forestville.

B. Y. Rogers, Esq., Democratic candidate for Register of Deeds, led off in a satisfactory explanation of a personal charge made against him and was replied to by his opponent, W. W. White.

The candidates for the sheriffalty, Messrs. Dunn and Nowell, and for the office of County Treasurer, Messrs. Lewis and Harrison, merely announced themselves.

Geo. H. Snow, Esq., Democratic candidate for the Senate, made the most telling speech he has ever made thus far in the canvass. He was replied to by "Honest" Robert Wynne, his Republican opponent, in a very non-committal sort of a way.

The candidates for the lower House of the General Assembly, Messrs. Page, Whitley, Olive and Jones, Democrats, made brief but excellent speeches. Messrs. Purnell, Bledsoe, Ennis and Todd, on the Republican side, made their usual communistic harangues.

Keith, the independent candidate, who is of a nondescript political stripe, merely announced himself as the workingman's champion.

Movements of Cotton in Raleigh.

Receipts for week ending October 27th, 3,205 bales; receipts same week last year, 1,606 bales; increase in receipts for week this year, 1,599 bales; whole receipts since 1st September, 1876, to date, 15,842 bales; whole receipts same time last year 13,784 bales; increase in receipts up to date, 2,058 bales.

We have had an unusually active week in cotton with the heaviest receipts we have ever had, with one exception, when the receipts exceeded those of this week forty-three bales. The full prices of last week were fully sustained until on Friday, when our railroads suddenly advanced rates of freight to New York and other points nearly one hundred per cent. Our market closed active at 9¾ to 10 cents for middlings and corresponding prices for lower grades. We are glad to note that we are daily receiving cotton from points that have not before shipped to our market.

Any person can challenge a voter on election day and show by proper testimony that he is not entitled to vote See State vs. Colvert.—June Term of the Supreme Court.

The Eastern Outlook.

R. W. Best, Esq., of this city, has just arrived from an extended tour in a number of our eastern counties. He says that in Carteret, Craven, Onslow, Jones, Pitt, Beaufort, Pamlico, Greene, Lenoir, Wilson and Wayne the enthusiasm for Tilden and Vance is on the increase. He says that the great mass of the white people in these counties are solid for reform, and that a large number of colored voters have joined with them and will support the entire Democratic ticket. From all quarters good news is coming.

BABBLING BALL BUSTED.

An Unappreciative Community.

[Special Correspondence of the News.]

PITTSBORO, Oct. 27, 1876.

Few things are calculated to enliven our minds so much as some particular mark of respect or esteem paid to one of our party friends and leaders; so you can imagine our feelings when we are allowed the pleasure of reporting the complete ovation with which Mr. Wm S. Ball, of Greensboro, has been greeted in Chatham. Yesterday was the day advertised for his speaking at this place. At one o'clock the Court House bell rang a gentle reminder to our good citizens that this patriot had come to remove the political scales from their eyes. After waiting a reasonable time for the people to assemble, Mr. Ball, with three tried friends, two black and one white, as his escort, went to the appointed place of speaking, when lo and behold! Ball and his escort formed the audience as well as the speaking corps. It is due Mr. Ball to say his audience would have been increased by the addition of one other sable friend, but Ball's "oh-be-joyful" was too strong; it had a kind of temperance flavor about it that completely mastered our sable friend long before the hour of speaking arrived. It is needless to say the speaking was indefinitely postponed. Ball has gone home.

Attention Democrats.

The Chairman of the Democratic Township Executive Committee, J. A. Harris, Esq., calls upon all Democrats and Conservatives to look after their names on the registration books. The books close on November 6th at sundown. The following are the places for registering and voting:

1st. Ward—Registering place, Alfred Upchurch's coach shop, Hargett street; voting place, Baptist Grove. Registrar, Thomas Scarlett.

2nd. Ward—Registering place, school house near the city graveyard. Voting place, Jenkins shop, near Tupper's church. Registrar, R. W. Taylor.

3rd. Ward—Registering place, Court House; voting place, Court House. Registrar, R. B. Seawell.

4th. Ward—Registering place Gas House; voting place, Hargett street school house. Registrar, Thomas Belvin.

5th. Ward—Registering place, W. M. Lowe's, Hillsboro street, near the railroad bridge; voting place, A. L. Moore's old store, southwest corner of the Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind. Registrar, W. M. Lowe.

Township Box—Registering place, Court House; voting place, Court House. Registrar, J. M. Carver.

The Chairman of the Township Committee earnestly urges all to look after this matter of registration.

Sailing Under False Colors.

Yesterday afternoon a rather hard looking caravan, consisting of five men, four boys and three women, having with them four or five mules and horses, and several dilapidated vehicles, passed through the city en route for South Carolina. They are making, so they said, for Lumberton, and that their business was horse and mule trading. They claimed to be gipsies, but there was not one in the gang who showed a single characteristic of that mysterious race. They neither looked, talked nor acted like gipsies. Our conclusion was that the gang were not as virtuous as they should be. They camped last night about four miles down the Fayetteville road.

Judge Fowle in Wake.

We are glad to announce that the people of Mark's Creek, Forestville and New Light townships, this county, are soon to have an opportunity of again hearing this distinguished gentleman. No one has a larger share of the confidence of the people of Wake than Judge Fowle. They admire him for his integrity as a man and his learning and eloquence as a statesman and lawyer.

This is the list of the appointments above alluded to:

Mark's Creek, (Hood's Store,) Friday, November 3

Rolesville, Saturday, Nov. 4.

New Light, (Laws') Monday, November 6

Marriages Last Week.

Business in the matrimonial line was not brisk hereabouts. This is the sum total of the week's operations:

Whites.—E. S. Bunch and Cora P. Eddings; M. McK. Howell and Mary A. Powell; A. E. Rogers and Lucretia Champion; Josiah Parrish and Margaret Parrish.

Colored.—Fenner Debnam and Rosanna Robertson.

The Good Old North State.

I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of the celebrated Old North State Cooking Stoves. Call at once and secure bargains, as prices are down, down, down. Every stove sold warranted to give satisfaction, or the stove can be returned and the money will be refunded. C. A. Hart, Market and Martin streets, Raleigh N. C.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL—Near the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad shops, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

At nearly all of the churches ushers are in attendance; at all the seats are free and the public welcomed.

Any person can challenge a voter on election day and show by proper testimony that he is not entitled to vote. See State vs. Colvert.—June Term of the Supreme Court.

The Prospect in Wayne.

George V. Strong, Esq., of this city, returned Friday evening from attendance upon the Wayne Superior Court. He says that he has practiced law in that county for twenty-three years, and never saw there such a large and enthusiastic crowd as that which greeted Vance in Goldsboro Friday. The notice of the Governor's coming was but a short one, and not so large a crowd by half was expected. Mr. Strong says that a fair election will place old Wayne under the Democratic banner, Vance probably leading the ticket.

Stay at Home and Vote.

The election is just eight days off. We hope all our friends who contemplate visiting the Centennial will postpone going until after that time, and not imperil the success of our cause by leaving the State in this her hour of danger. Horatio Seymour was defeated for Governor of New York in 1850 by only 250 majority. Stay at home until after the election.

Those Blank Election Return Forms.

We are requested by the gentlemen who got up the blank election return alluded to in Thursday's NEWS, to state that the blank has been explained to Gen. Cox, Col. Keogh and Mr. Snow, of both parties, who approved it, and that the commissioners of this county have ordered to be printed of it a sufficient number for the townships and wards at the approaching election.

Fair Echoes.

We have until now omitted to mention the nice samples of porter, ale and beer contributed by Mr. David Youngling, of Richmond, Va. These goods are put up in pint bottles, and have stood the test of the medical profession for purity, and for invalids and sick persons are just the thing. Mr. Youngling carries on his business by steam, and is prepared to fill all orders. Give him a trial and you will not be disappointed.

Appointments Recalled.

Owing to a press of important engagements W. R. Cox, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, is compelled to withdraw his appointments at Statesville, Concord and the big barbecue, near Warrenton. We hope our State exchanges will make a note of this.

Be wise in time and procure Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which always cures Coughs and Colds, and prevents consumption. 25 cents; large size, 50 cents.

A. C. Sanders & Co. will pay the highest prices for cotton and will sell more groceries for less money than any firm in the city.

SETTLE sustains Grant's attempt at intimidation and fraud in South Carolina.

"HOLDEN FLATTENED."—This is the way in which the Wilmington Star puts it, after reading the card of Rev. Thomas W. Babb.

SAMUEL J. TILDEN, the man to whom, more than to any other human being or agency, New York owes the overthrow of the Tweed dynasty. * *—N. Y. Tribune, Sept. 10, 1874.

REMEMBER that Hayes and Wheeler propose to obtain their election by arresting white men in a Southern State, and by fraud, intimidation and violence. Will you endorse such rascality by your vote?

REMEMBER that a reign of terror has been inaugurated among the whites of South Carolina by Grant and the Republicans, in order to carry by fraud and intimidation the electoral vote of that State for Hayes and Wheeler. Will you by your vote endorse such despotism and wrong?

THE GRANT-CHAMBERLAIN CONSPIRACY.

Hayes and Wheeler despaired of their election unless they could inflame the war spirit of the North against the Southern whites. To accomplish this unpatriotic purpose, they engaged in a CONSPIRACY. They conspired with Chamberlain, the Republican Governor of South Carolina, to make it appear that the white people of that State were again in insurrection and rebellion. Peace reigned in South Carolina, her white citizens were quietly attending to their private affairs and faithfully obeying the laws of both the State and the nation.

But the deeply-laid scheme was agreed upon, and had to be carried out, or Hayes would be surely defeated.

So Chamberlain falsely proclaimed that the whites had again rebelled; and stirred up the negroes in the eastern counties to murder the whites; to burn their dwellings and convert the country into a scene of outrage and barbarism.

Grant quickly assumed the wicked role he was to play and sent thousands of United States troops to suppress this new rebellion. The cry of war! again resounded throughout the North. Pillage and plunder were again in the hearts of Northern Radicals.

Hate again dethroned the reason of the Republican masses.

The conspiracy was working well. But behold! the U. S. soldiers on reaching the scene of the alleged rebellion found the Southern whites ready to receive them with open arms. Banners were in the breeze and music greeted the troops who came to wage a war, but found only PEACE.

They were welcomed not to bloody graves, but to the hospitable mansions of those whom the conspirators had proclaimed were in open rebellion!

And more, these fearful whites, these men whom Grant and Hayes and their friends had falsely claimed were in a state of insurrection, have appealed and appealed that troops should be sent among them to the eastern counties of that misruled State to protect them from Republican violence, from murder and rapine.

The conspiracy has proved an abortion. Truth has triumphed over falsehood. The revulsion at the North will prove a potent element in sweeping out of political existence all those miserable creatures whose only patriotism is self-gain, and whose stock in trade is lies and hate. Tilden will surely be elected; and the country be relieved from the rule of thieves.

SENATOR RANSOM.

This distinguished gentleman will address the citizens of Raleigh at Metropolitan Hall, on Monday night Let the city give him a rousing reception. He comes from the western part of North Carolina, where he has been making an active canvass, and doing effective work in the cause He can tell us how brightly the watch-fires are burning in the mountains, and inspire us with fresh determination to win in the great impending conflict.

It would be well if every man who doubts which party to act with in this fight, could hear Senator Ransom on the issues of the day. No one handles this grand theme with more eloquence, power or beauty than he. He brings to it a mind rich in information, trained by experience, and thoroughly imbued with the spirit of genuine, ardent, unswerving patriotism.

The splendid effort which he made here in 1872 has not been forgotten. He made at that time a deep and lasting impression upon all who heard him, by his cogent reasoning, brilliant flights of imagination, and pathetic appeals for the Old North State. Then as now he inveighed against the corruptions of the administration; plead for reconciliation; and arraigned the Republican party for its sins against the people.

Let the Democrats of Raleigh turn out in full to-morrow night, and testify their esteem for one who has ever been steadfast and true to the interests of the State, in war and in peace.

THE CHARLOTTE DEMONSTRATION.

On the 1st of November the Democrats of Mecklenburg will have a grand mass meeting and torchlight procession. It will probably exceed anything of the kind which has yet taken place in this State, during the present campaign.

The speakers invited and expected are Vance, Leach, Clingman, Davis, Robbins, Shober, Steele, Bennett, of North Carolina; Hampton, Kershaw, Chesnut, Moise, of South Carolina; Hill of Georgia, and Black of Pennsylvania.

REVOLUTIONARY.

Dick Badger said in his Newbern speech that the Republican Senators have determined not to count the votes of certain States if they go Democratic.

Thank God, we have about two members of Congress where these Revolutionists have one.

These Democratic members will have a word to say about that. The Democrats are for peace, and these Revolutionists will find their little game is blocked.

REGISTRATION FRAUDS.

If the registrars and supervisors do their duty faithfully and honestly, no fraudulent registration can be effected, and no illegal attempts to vote will prove successful.

Will they do their duty? We believe they will. We believe they will not connive at fraud. We believe they will not place on the registry the names of persons who are not legal voters.

The law under which the registrars and supervisors of elections act gives officers ample power to prevent fraud, and it should be diligently and impartially enforced. Certainly, such officials will be held to a rigid accountability for the performance of their duties.

Every good citizen, whether Democrat or Republican, will approve the strictest measures that can be adopted to preserve the purity of the ballot-box and to secure a fair, honest election.

THERE is no better indication of the result of an election than the pool selling, just before it takes place. Speculators are very careful in their calculations. The bettors are not actuated by partisan motives, nor do they stake their money from impulse or enthusiasm. It is a cold, business transaction, based on those facts that foreshadow results. It almost removes a doubt of Tilden's election, then, when it is known that at the pool-selling in New York day before yesterday, there was 200 to 175 in favor of Tilden, on all the States; and on New York State, 1,000 to 400 in favor of Tilden. Brighter and brighter grows the prospect as the decisive day approaches But work on, to make assurance doubly sure.

THE Republican newspapers of this State say that Tilden was a confederate of Tweed. The New York Tribune, Republican, said, November 2, 1874: "The candidates for the Governorship are men of such high character that no personal assault has been made upon either which has not reacted to the sole injury of the assailant. Mr. Tilden's service in the destruction of the Tweed Ring entitles him to equal consideration and gratitude. We have from the outset steadily vindicated each against the malevolent assaults of small-minded and unwise partisans."

NOTHING shows the utter desperation of the Republicans more than the unscrupulous and most wicked means which they are resorting to, to carry the election. They are flooding the country with secret lying circulars of all kinds. We have seen one headed "Read! Ponder! Reflect!" purporting to be an article from the New York World, in which that sterling Democratic paper is made to say that "the only safe way out is to elect Hayes and Wheeler." We warn our people against all such tricks of the enemy.

THE Pee Dee Herald says that Judge Settle, in a conversation with Mr. Oliver H. Dockery the night after the speaking at Monroe, said that it was impossible for him (Settle) to be elected. In his speech at Hillsboro, he asserted boastfully that he would be the next Governor of North Carolina. It is a matter of very little consequence, what he says about the prospect. Unless he is blind he must see that his defeat is as certain as anything in the future well can be.

THE Democrats of Baltimore gained a signal victory in the municipal election there on the 25th instant. They elected their candidates in eighteen of the twenty wards. The election was for members of the first branch of the city council. This branch in the last council stood ten Democrats and ten Republicans. The Democratic gain was large. In all the recent municipal elections, we have gained, while the Republicans have lost ground

THEY are going to make General O. O. Howard disgorge some of the money he stole during his connection with the Freedman's Bureau and the Howard University. This sanctimonious rogue is called in derision, the "Christian Statesman." He is a shining specimen of the religious hypocrites who lead the Republican party.

GOV. TILDEN is to be congratulated upon being the "best abused" candidate for the Presidency since the days of Andrew Jackson. That old hero survived the wicked and malicious assaults of his opponents, as will Gov. Tilden; and it is scarcely necessary to waste time in refuting the slanders of a desperate and unscrupulous partisan press.

THIS DAY remember that the President of the United States has sent the troops of our country to take away the private arms of Southern whites, while negro mobs are largely provided with government arms and amunition, and are inflamed to deeds of outrage by Republican leaders. Will you by your vote sustain the President in this?

THE grandest demonstration of this campaign was the Tilden torchlight procession in New York City on Friday night. Sixty thousand men were in line. What a magnificent sight! No Hayes demonstration is comparable to it. Is this not fresh evidence to show the way the tide of popular enthusiasm is moving?

THIS DAY remember that outrage and crime and deeds of violence have taken the place of law and order and civilization in South Carolina. This is the work of Grant and his friends, and Judge Settle sustains them in these atrocities. Will you countenance it by casting your vote for Judge Settle?

THIS DAY remember that civilization has been destroyed throughout all eastern South Carolina and barbarism has been substituted in those splendid counties; this is the work of Republicans, and Judge Settle endorses the outrage. Will you by your vote endorse it?

RICHARD C. BADGER is reported as saying "he would rather be a negro than a poor white man." That is a gross insult to his race. Will white men act with a party which is led by a man who entertains such a sentiment as this?

THE Newbernian, of October 28, says: "We are informed that Dick Badger said in his great (?) speech here on Wednesday night last that he would rather be a negro than a poor white man" Richard! Richard! Richard!

H. H. HARPER is an "independent" candidate for the Senate in the 30th district, [illegible] no chance of election, [illegible] Captain Crawford is certain of success. The men of Rowan and Davie do not tie on to independents much.

STATE CANVASS.

Clay will give an almost solid vote for Democracy.

The canvass progresses finely in every part of the State.

Gen A. M. Scales speaks in Ashboro, on the 3d of November.

The Democrats expect to carry Haywood county by seven hundred majority.

Everybody is going to the grand demonstration in Charlotte, November 1st.

Col. Thomas Ruffin, of Hillsboro is a warm supporter of Tilden, Vance and Reform.

Billy Smith is in the mountains trying to conciliate disaffected Radicals! Imagine Bringham Young out in the back yard among 47 disaffected wives.

A. W. Graham, the efficient Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Orange county, is once more at his post and all letters should be addressed to him at Hillsboro, N. C.

The colored porter of the Hickory hotel says: "I don't know how other people elsewhere is going to vote, but as for us here in Catawba, we are going to have Vance for our Governor."

Mt. Airy Watchman: We learn that W. B. Glenn Democratic elector for this district, and Mr. Gosling, editor of the Republican paper at Winston, had a regular set-to at Winston, a few days since Mr. Glenn came out best man.

All the accounts which we receive from Maj. J. C. McRae's canvass, represent him as doing a splendid service in the great cause. His speeches are full of fine logic, argument and eloquence and he is certain of carrying his district by a handsome majority.—Fayetteville Gazette.

Mr. J. W. Bright, a merchant from Dysartsville, McDowell county, reports everything as very flattering for Tilden and Vance, and gives the names of five Republicans, living in his immediate neighborhood, who have come out openly for Tilden, Vance and Reform, and says there are numbers of others who will change, but that they are quiet about it. His opinion is that McDowell will increase her Merimon majority more than one hundred votes.

We find the following in the Baltimore Gazette:

GREENSBORO, N. C., Oct. 13.

Since I left my home in Virginia I have visited seven counties in this State, and seen and conversed most intimately with many of the leading citizens of these counties, and I have yet to find the first Democrat who entertains any doubt of Governor Vance's election; and from all I could learn—and I took special pains to post myself—I think there is no doubt of the entire Democratic ticket. State and National, carrying this State by a handsome majority. The result of the recent elections in West Virginia, Ohio, and Indiana will add largely to the vote that would otherwise have been given to Tilden and Vance, and place North Carolina among the most certain States for the Democratic party. H. S.

Judge Fowle's Wit.

P Henry Winston is the senior editor of the "Albemarle Times." The last issue of our sterling contemporary was a strut with chickens in every attitude of presentation-rampant, couchant, blatant The first of the Economist household that saw it, said; "The Times has been changed to an illustrated weekly. We looked, and with thoughts of the practical observed; "there are enough chickens in the Times to make a good smart pie. Just then calling on Judge Fowle, we took to him the evening mail. Opening the Times, the Judge remarked: 'Pat's paper this week is a Hennery"—"Thank you, Judge, we replied, we will use your wit and give you credit for it"—"Yes give credit to one of the Fowle family," he promptly responded.—Elizabth City Economist.

Petersburg Index-Appeal: The North Carolina Democratic Committee have issued a stirring address to the people of that State and under its impress the Old North State moves forward in the columns of Reform.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Reduction of taxation is the watchword of the hour!

'Brooklyn Argus:" The blush on the President's nose, we regret to hear, is becoming too constant to be any longer a guide to his emotions.

The Philadelphia Times shows how New York may be carried by the Republicans: 'Morgan must open his money bags still wider, Chandler must stir the Custom House hacks into a livelier gate, and Don Cameron's outrage mill must turn out a great deal better grist than any that has yet borne its brand." Hopeful isn't it?

General Hampton addressed at least 500 people at Graniteville. His reception was beyond comparison. He delivered one of his telling speeches, and the effect among the colored portion of the audience, which was very large, was manifest. At the close of his remarks, he was lifted bodily in the arms of several colored men and kindly placed in his carriage.

It is not the policy of the Republican managers to permit their voters to know anything about the Constitution, because they ignore that document themselves. We therefore find Republicans, as a general thing, entirely unacquainted with the provisions of the Constitution, and their acquaintance with the history of the country does not generally run back farther than the recent inception of the career of the Republican party.

R. B. Elliott, of South Carolina is one of those 'sound Republicans" who like Chamberlain, are held up by the Hayes organs as models of virtue and long suffering patriotism It was this same man Elliott however who in the Republican convention which nominated Chamberlain, said: "I have papers in my pocket which if I produce, will brand Governor Chamberlain as a felon and consign him to the penitentiary" Chamberlain shortly before this said that Elliott was "the most corrupt man in South Carolina" Fearful that each would 'squeal" on the other these two disreputable characters joined hands to perpetuate the stealing and conceal the general rottenness of the party.

Does It Mean Impeachment?

[Special to N. Y. Herald.]

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 25.

Senator Randolph, of New Jersey, arrived here this morning and stopped at the Wheeler House, now the headquarters of the Military Department of the South. The Senator was called upon by leading citizens of all parties, but he declined any public reception, serenade or ceremony that would lead to speech-making. The Senator's visit is purely of a private character.

HIS OBJECT

is to see and hear for himself, and as a member of the Senate Military Committee his presence here at this particular juncture has a peculiar significance. To-day he had an extended interview with Gen. Ruger on the condition of affairs in this State, which was highly satisfactory to the Senator. He is gratified to state that Ruger appreciates the delicacy and grave responsibility of his position, and he feels satisfied that the duties devolving upon the distinguished officer will be discharged in strict accordance with his military propriety. The Senator was agreeably surprised to find such a peaceful and submissive feeling existing among the white people, which under the circumstances, meant that they were determined not to be provoked into a collision or a disturbance of any sort.

SENATOR RANDOLPH'S OPINION.

As regards the troops he was clearly of opinion that their presence was not only not needed, but that it was in direct subversion of the constitution that they were brought here. From very few remarks let fall by the Senator there can be but little doubt that his visit here is the initial step to important as to the course of the President in garrisoning the State with troops on the eve of a Presidential election.—The Senator will remain in the State for a week, during which time he will thoroughly investigate the situation and inform himself as to the condition of affairs.

VIGOROUS CONGRESSIONAL ACTION

Counting the Electoral Vote.

[New York Herald.]

There has been at no time so far any dispute about the count which involved serious consequences. Under the notorious twenty-second joint rule, in 1873, the electoral votes of Arkansas and Louisana were thrown out for various reasons, but the majority for General Grant was so great that this made no difference. It should be understood that this joint rule was not re-adopted by the last Congress, and is, therefore, no longer effective. Accordingly, the next counting of the electoral vote will take place on the second Wednesday in February under the following constitutional provision and law:

"Article 12.—* * * The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately by ballot the President."

Section 142—Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in February succeeding every meeting of the electors, and the certificates, or so many of them as have been received, shall then be opened, and the votes counted and the persons to fill the offices of President and Vice-President ascertained and declared, agreeably to the constitution."

* * * * * * *

A vague apprehension has been felt of possible trouble in the counting of the next electoral vote, but there is no ground for this. We don't live in Mexico, and the people would frown down any attempt to interfere with their will by tampering with the votes of the electoral college. Nevertheless, it is to be hoped that the next Congress will adopt an amendment favored by many prominent men of both parties, electing the President by a popular vote. It is a simpler and better way. Under the present system many presidents have received but a minority of the popular vote.

Southern Loyalists.

(N. Y. Herald.)

Tilden's great hobby is a reduction of taxes. He would stultify himself if he gave any quarter to a gigantic scheme for taxing the people to pay Southern claims. Claims by the Southern rebels are quite out of the question, because the Constitution forbids their payment; claims by Southern loyalists or pretended loyalists will be remorselessly vetoed without hesitation or embarrassment, because the ex-rebels, as a body, do not want a set of people whom they regarded as sneaks rewarded for treachery to their section when it was struggling for independence and protection to its property. At one period of the war there was a popular song in the South beginning with these lines:—

> I'm a good old rebel,
> That's just what I am.

We imagine that none of the signers of that song had any love for the Southern loyalists then or wishes to see a premium paid them now. Mr. Tilden has strengthened himself in the South as well as in the North by setting his face against war indemnities which none of the "good old rebels" could share. The country may be quite easy as to an increase of the public burdens from this source. This bugaboo being disposed of it is difficult to find any ground of apprehension respecting the public credit.

Don't Forget!

[Fayetteville Gazette.]

That your failure to put in a vote for the ratification of the Constitutional Amendments may be the means of riveting for years the horrid chains of misgovernment and despotism upon your friends and brothers in the Eastern counties.

Good for Moore.

[Fayetteville Gazette.]

One of the best Democrats and most prominent citizens of Moore county writes to us as follows under date of 24th:

The campaign in our county closed on the 18th inst. Our noble standard-bearer, Mr. M. S. Robbins of Randolph county, who is our candidate for the Senate for Moore and Randolph, canvassed the most of this county. We feel proud of him; he is an able, bold and fluent speaker, a man of decided ability and a high-toned gentleman. He treats his opponent with courtesy, but lifts the hide off of him every crack. He will make us an able and worthy member in our next Senate, and we have no doubt of his election.

Capt. J. D. McIver has made the most successful canvass for the Legislature that has been made in this county in twenty years. He has demolished his opponent at every point; I know his opponent will never consent to meet him on the hustings again. There are few better speakers than Capt. J. D. McIver; we feel proud of him, and his election is certain by a good majority.

With such men as Robbins and McIver for our representatives we may hope with assurance that the interests of the people will not suffer. You may put Moore down for Tilden, Vance, Waddell, Robbins, McIver and Reform at from 200 to 300 majority.

Holden's Attack on Vance.

[Salisbury Watchman.]

W. W. Holden has come forward, within the last few days, charging Gov. Vance with having failed to account for public money in his hands at the close of the war. He does not say that Vance used it for his own private purposes: he does not presume to say that he stole it, or that he made any improper use of it. He expressly refrains from any such direct charges as these, but yet suggests all these arrant lies. Holden himself knows they are false.

The suggestio falsi method of warfare is so much meaner than any other as that it adds vile cowardice to him who practices it. Under the guise of great boldness of speech, the liar and murderer at heart expects to pass as a brave man whose virtuous indignation burns against the wickedness of the wicked. He would make others believe a slander he dare not utter.

Our readers would hardly pardon us for the mention of Holden's name in this connection with that of Gov. Vance without expressly stating that it is offered only as an item of news.

It will be well to observe, however, that this slander has been held back all through the summer, and is thrown down now on the eve of the canvass as the gambler throws his trump card. It is utterly contemptible.

"Work While it is Day."

[Fayetteville Gazette.]

Less than two weeks now remain to the Democratic party for the accomplishment of their great work of the regeneration of the American people and the restoration of good government in the Union and the States. If they are but true to themselves, and firm in their adherence to the great principles upon which their leaders are marching forward in the important campaign now being waged; if they are but faithful to the great duties and responsibilities which appeal to them as free and intelligent citizens—victory is assured and a most brilliant triumph awaits the Democracy in November.

Let us see that no failure is possible through our apathy, weakness, indifference or want of harmony; let us see that the numbers on our roll stand all in line on the day of battle, and that not one fails to be present to take his post in the final and decisive contest at the ballot-box.

Everything favors us in this political struggle: the infamy and utter worthlessness of the opposing party is dragging that pernicious faction down to defeat, while the great principles of honesty and reform upon which our own righteous cause is founded are challenging the hearty support and admiration of the people, regardless of party, everywhere.

The Penalty for Illegal Voting.

The following is the punishment laid down in our State laws against persons who attempt to practice fraud and repeating at the ballot box:

"Any person who shall, with intent to commit a fraud, register or vote at more than one box or more than one time, or who shall induce another to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be imprisoned not less than twelve months, or fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court; and any registrar of the voters, or any clerk or copyist, who shall make any entry or copy with intent to commit a fraud shall be liable to the same penalty.

Any person who shall falsely and corruptly take the oath prescribed for voters shall be deemed to be guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined one thousand dollars and be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Supervisors of Elections.

John B. Gretter, Esq., of Greensboro, has been appointed Chief Supervisor of Elections for the Western District of North Carolina. All communications relating to this subject should be addressed to the undersigned, at Greensboro, N. C.

In recommending persons for Supervisors of Election, parties should bear in mind that where such appointments are made at all, there must be two for each precinct, one Democrat and one Republican, and they must be able to read and write and be voters at the precinct for which they are appointed.

All applications for appointment must state distinctly the politics of the party for whom the appointment is asked, otherwise no appointment can be made.

JNO. B. GRETTER,
Chief Supervisor,
for the Western District of N. C.

Heavy Blow to Radicalism.

[Shelby Banner.]

We call attention to the startling disclosures of Radical depravity as confessed by Gov. W. W. Holden to Rev. C. T. Bailey is an intellectual Baptist minister of prominence. He is well known in this State as a truthful christian gentleman above reproach. This will prove a heavy blow to the Republican party in this State, as it exposes the nefarious origin of the Holden-Kirk War.

The Campaign in Iredell.

[Charlotte Observer.]

Our old friend, Edmund Johnston, one of the best and most influential farmers in lower Iredell, called upon us on last Wednesday, and represented the political outlook in Davidson Township as bright as it could well be. He says they had him before the Federal Court once, and tried to make a Republican out of him, but they couldn't succeed. He called over the names of fifteen or twenty white Republicans that we personally know, and stated that they had renounced the Republican party, and come openly and above board for Tilden, Vance, and the whole Conservative ticket. He is confident of a gain of more than 50 votes over the Caldwell-Merrimon election.

Not a Competent Witness.

[Salisbury Watchman.]

We publish in this paper, as a simple act of justice and fairness, that part of Holden's reply which adverts to the statements of Mr. Bailey, and is a denial in toto of that gentleman's account; and have only to add to it, that a man whose political life is but a bundle of inconsistencies and falsehoods, crowned with one of the most wanton assaults on the civil liberties of the people of the State ever perpetrated in our country, and who, for his crimes was expelled from office, is hardly a competent witness in the case before us.

Cumberland Fair—Great Attractions.

[Fayetteville Gazette.]

We are going to have a good fair, notwithstanding politics and the Centennial. We will publish an attractive list of special premiums next week. Several military companies have been invited to visit the fair, and there will be a grand military parade, target-firing and military ball during the week. We invite all the people of the upper Cape Fear section to unite with us on the occasion.

Remember!

(Fayetteville Gazette.)

That the ratification of the Constitutional Amendments is the only salvation of your white fellow-citizens in the Radical counties of Eastern Carolina!

LEGAL NOTICES.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the power and authority contained in that certain deed of trust, bearing date the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy, and made by and between the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway company of the one part, and R. A. Lancaster, W. K. Easley and Alfred Austell of the other part, and in compliance with the directions in that behalf contained in the decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, made at October Term, 1875, in a certain suit in equity therein pending, in which Skipwith Wilmer and Augustus Richards are complainants, and the Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway company and others are defendants (and in and by which decree the undersigned John H. Fisher was appointed a trustee under the said deed of trust in the place of the said W. K. Easley who was deceased, and with all of the rights, powers and authority under the said deed of trust which were possessed by the said W. K. Easley in his lifetime), and in compliance also with the decrees of the Circuit Courts of the United States for the Districts of South Carolina and of the Western District of North Carolina, confirming the said decree made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia: We, the undersigned, will on the fifth day of December next, between the legal hours of sale, to wit, ten o'clock a. m., and four o'clock p. m. on that day, in front of the county Court House of Fulton county, in the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, sell at public auction, the entire railway of the said The Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company extending from the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, to the city of Charlotte in the State of North Carolina, together with all its franchises, lands, buildings, machinery, rolling-stock, materials, and other property, real and personal, wherever situated and in whatsoever manner held, and whether owned and held by the said company at the time of the date of the said deed of trust, or therea fter acquired.

The terms of such sale shall be as follows:

1st. The premises will be sold in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash.

2d. Ten per cent. of the purchase money of the said premises will be required to be paid to the undersigned trustees at the time and place of sale and immediately after the premises shall be struck down, and the purchaser will be required at the same time to sign a memorandum of his purchase.

3d. The residue of such purchase money will be required to be paid to the said trustees at the office of John H. Fisher, as receiver of the said railway, in the city of Atlanta on or before the twenty six h day of December next, when and where the deed of the undersigned, for the said premises will be ready for delivery.

4th. The biddings will be kept open after the premises shall be struck down, and in case any purchaser shall fail to comply with any of the terms of sale, the premises struck down to him will be again put up for sale upon the same terms of sale. Provided, however, that if the holders of any of the four thousand two hundred and forty-eight bonds, secured by the said deed of trust, should, at the sale become the purchasers of the said premises it shall not be necessary for them to pay the purchase money therefor, so far as concerns the proportion thereof, which, as such bondholders, they would be entitled to receive if the net amount of such purchase money were distributed pro rata equally among all of the holders of the said four thousand two hundred and forty eight bonds; but, that in such case, the bonds held by them, with the coupons annexed thereto, shall be brought into the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, and the sale to them will be reported to the said court by the undersigned, and a conveyance to them to said bondholders will be withheld until the said Court shall give directions in relation to the disposition to be made of the proceeds of such sale.

FROM NEW YORK.

The French Commissioner on Centennial Pillage---Insurance Men Arrested---Anti-Tammany and the Republicans---Dynamite Explosion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Herald's special from Paris says: The Figaro prints a letter translated from a German newspaper, written by M. Du Summerard, Chief of the Commissioners of France at Philadelphia, to a friend in Germany, in which M Du Summerard says:

"Accounts transmitted to me from my deputy are of a most grievous character. Americans themselves set fire to the buildings containing the empty cases of French goods, hoping to destroy French merchandise and articles for exhibition stored in the galleries. A second attempt of the same kind has been made within the last month. Worse than all this, the police employed by the Centennial Board are purposely chosen from the worst and most degraded elements in the United States. The keepers are thieves without exception. They steal openly from exhibitors in the French department, and all others. There is an understanding between these knaves and the judges. The judges call up rogues for a hearing when complaints are made at hours unknown to the complainants, and as a result, no witnesses of the criminal's guilt being present, they are acquitted. Even worse than this, if such a thing be possible, thieves count on the judges themselves to give them a signal when a dis reet moment has arrived to begin the pillage. The correspondent says: "The article concluded with an attack upon the virtue and manners of American women."

An insurance agent has brought suit against the United States Life Insurance Company, in the Supreme Court of Kings county, before Judge Gilbert, alleging in his complaint great and various irregularities, chiefly against John E. DeWitt and Jas. Buell. They are charged, too, with conspiring to transfer the reserve fund of the company to other companies for their own advantage. Judge Gilbert granted a temporary injunction and an order for the examination of Buell and DeWitt for trial by a referee.

The anti-Tammany heard report of Committee of Conference with the Republicans, who would not combine with the anti-Tammany unless they tarew Green and O'Brien off the ticket. The report was received with indignation, and a resolution adopted deciding to hold no further conference with the Republicans.

A trunk, said to have been loaded with dynamite, exploded on the baggage car of the Philadelphia train yesterday afternoon, completely destroying the trunk, setting fire to others and destroying about $500 worth of baggage. The remains of an intricate clock-like machine, was found in the ruins. The train was stopped to prevent the possible destruction of the other cars, which were filled with Centennial passengers.

An easterly storm, accompanied at its beginning with a slight fall of snow, set in here this morning.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Servians Wounding Themselves---Discord in the Reichstadt---The Servian Ministry.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Times' dispatch from Belgrade confirms the statement that self-wounding is again becoming frequent among the Servians. The dispatch says that during the fight at Krevet a distinguished officer brought half of a Russian batallion to the front, saying that he was compelled to leave the other half behind to prevent the Servians from running away.

A dispatch from Vienna to the Times states that Prince Aversperg's reply in the Reichstadt yesterday to interrogations on the Eastern questions is not satisfactory. There will probably be an animated debate on the subject in that body.

The Times to-day, in its financial article, says the feeling that war is staved off at least for the winter becomes much more prevalent.

BELGRADE, Oct. 28.—The Servian cabinet difficulty is in a fair way of being settled. It is probable that Nicolich will consent to retain the portfolio of minister of war.

A telegram from the minister of the Interior at Delegrad to Prime Minister Ristics, in reply to an inquiry, says that the Turks have not taken Djunis.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Council Extraordinary---Shall Turkey Be Represented in the Conference? A Peaceful Solution Hoped For.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 28.—An [illegible] was held Thursday to consider the armistice.

The German, Russian, Austrian and Italian Ambassadors conferred together Friday.

Gen. Ignatieff, the Russian minister, has an interview with the Porte to-day.

RAGUSA, Oct. 28.—Dervish Pasha has withdrawn from Padgoritza to the Groudy district, in the rear of Palotha.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Post says: "If an armistice is agreed upon then comes the question of a conference. Russia objects to Turkey participating therein. It ought to be practicable to find a method by which a representative of the Porte may sit in a conference. Before a conference is summoned the questions of its basis and effects, which might occasion a protracted and dangerous debate, should, by unanimous agreement, be reduced to the simplest terms, which may be stated thus: The basis of the conference is the maintenance of the independence and integrity of the Ottoman Empire. The object is the amelioration of the condition of the christian subjects of the Sultan. We are not without foundation for the hope that the solution here foreshadowed may be happily effected.

WASHINGTON.

The Indian Mission---Clerks Leaving to Vote.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Secretary Chas. M. Hendley telegraphs from Yankton that the Indian Commission has accomplished its mission and adjourned to meet at Washington on the 9th December.

The clerks living far west and northwest left for home to-day Those living nearer leave Thursday, They go to vote.

THE POLAR SEA.

Captain Nares' Report.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Capt. Nares' report to the Admiralty contains the following additional particulars of the Polar Sea: It is never navigable. The average thickness of ice is eight feet. Animal life and the northerly migration of birds end south of Cape Colombia. Esquimaux traces cease on the western shore in latitude 81 deg. 52 min. whence they cross to Greenland. The impracticability of reaching the pole is proved.

FROM NEW YORK.

An Injunction Denounced---Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The officers of the United States Life Insurance Company denounce the injunction proceedings against them as an attempt to blackmail.

Loans decrease 2¼ millions; specie decrease 1⅛ millions; legal tenders ½ of a million; deposits decrease six millions; reserve decrease 68 000.

Three Methodist Ministers Shot by Mistake.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—A special dispatch to the Globe Democrat from Little Rock, Arkansas, says that three Methodist ministers, riding the circuit in Pope county, were shot by Hughes and Hale from the brush. They are illicit distillers. They supposed that the preachers were Revenue officers coming to arrest them. One died in two hours. The others are dangerously, if not fatally, wounded. There are a large number of illicit distillers in that section, seven of whom were convicted this week.

The Alabama State Grange Fair.

MONTGOMERY Oct. 28.—The Alabama State Grange Fair closed today. It was a success in every particular. There was the largest display of field and garden products ever seen in the State. One Grange exhibited three hundred and fifteen different garden and field products. The prizes offered by the Montgomery shooting club, amounting to twenty-five hundred dollars, were hotly contested. The silver tea service was won by E. S. McClung, of Knoxville.

The Big Gun Trial.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The 100 ton Armstrong gun made for the Italian Government was eminently successful. A ball fired with 340 pounds of powder attained a velocity of 1500 feet per second, smashing solid wrought iron plates 22 inches thick and completely piercing the strong backing and thirty inch skin of a target, the resisistance of which is supposed to equal the sides of the great Italian iron-clad Duilis.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—For the South Atlantic States slowly falling barometer; southeast to southwest winds and warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail, with probably rain areas in North Carolina.

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

BETHLEHEM, PA. Oct. 28.—The Hudson coal company have stopped operations. Over thirteen thousand employees are thrown out of work. Other mining companies are about stopping.

ROME, N. Y. Oct. 28.—Mudge Ames' knitting mill has been burned. The loss is $65,000 One hundred operatives are ousted.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—The report of the proposed Fenian raid into Canada from St. Albans is pronounced false.

QUEBEC, Oct. 28.—Six inches of snow with thunder and lightning.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28.—The Captain of the British steamship "Chileon" from Kingston, reports a hurricane at Grand Caymon's island from the 17th to the 21st. One hundred and seventy houses were demolished. A part of the island is submerged. The inhabitants are destitute. The Chileon gave them all the extra provissions they had.

ELECTION LAW.

Opinion of Hon. B. F. Moore upon the Subject of Colonization.

(From the NEWS, April 27th, 1875.)

RALEIGH, N. C., April 26, '75.

Having been requested by many of my fellow-citizens to give my legal opinion upon the meaning of the word "resided" as used in section 7 of the amended charter of the city of Raleigh, which confers the privilege of voting for Aldermen upon citizens who have resided in the city for ninety days, and in the ward for which they may register for thirty days next preceding the election, I herewith accede to the request.

I think, and do so advise, that the word as used in the charter has precisely the same legal meaning as it has in the several Constitutions of the State: as in that of 1776, which in sections 5 and 6 qualifies the members of the Senate and House of Commons by requiring that they shall have resided in the county in which they are chosen for one year immediately preceding their election. Also in that of 1835, Art. I. Sec 3, which requires the residence of a member of the Senate to be in the district for which he is chosen for one year immediately preceding his election.

And, finally, as in the Constitution of 1868, Art. II. sections 9 and 10, which require a residence in the State of one year for Senators and Representatives; and Art. VI. Sec. 1, which requires that every voter "shall have resided in the State 12 months next preceding the election and thirty days in the county in which he offers to vote."

The residence intended and required by the city charter is a domicil, a fixed and settled home, both in the city and in the particular ward. A person may be a citizen of the city, without being a voting citizen of any particular ward of the city. His residence in the city may be permanent and fixed for years, although he change that residence from ward to ward many times, and therefore in the true meaning of the charter, he may be a resident of the city and yet not a resident of a ward; just as under Art. VI. section 1, of the State Constitution, a man may be a resident of the State for a year and not be a resident of any particular county for thirty days, and thus be excluded from voting. It is clear that a person who comes hither from his home in Virginia and remains located in this State for years to effect a purpose, is not a voting resident of the State if he intends to return when that purpose is accomplished

Under Art. VI. Section 1, a voter for the Legislature must have both a general residence, which must be for twelve months, and somewhere in the State, and a particular residence for thirty days, which must be somewhere in the county in which he votes. This residence within the State may be changed for every twenty-five days, yet he will still be a resident of the State, and might vote but for the requirement of a residence of thirty days in the particular county in which he votes, though he had been settled in the county of his residence for a day only. Such was the settled law under the old Constitution as decided in 1839 by the Supreme Court of which Ruffin was Chief Justice and Gaston and Daniel Associate Justices. The case was Roberts vs. Cannon, 4 Dev. & Bat. 256, and involved the question as to what was the true meaning of the term "residence," as used in the Constitution. That very learned Court says Judge Gaston delivering the opinion, that "By a residence in the county, the Constitution intends a domicil at that county. This requisite is satisfied by a visit to the county, whether for a longer or shorter time, if the stay there be for a temporary purpose, and with the design of leaving the county when that purpose is accomplished. It must be a fixed abode, constituting it the place of his home. This residence or domicil is a fact not more difficult of ascertainment when required as the qualifications of a voter, than residence or domicil at the moment of a man's death, which is so important in regulating the disposition and management of his estate after death."

Such is the meaning of residence as applied to a county, such must be the meaning of residence as applied to a city, and such also is necessarily the meaning of residence as applied to a ward of a city. The requisite of residence in a ward is not satisfied by a visit to the ward, whether for a shorter or longer time, if the stay there be for a temporary purpose, and with the design of leaving the ward when that purpose is accomplished. The ward must be a fixed abode, constituting it the place of his home. One of the objects of requiring from a voter a previous residence in a particular locality, wherein the right of suffrage may be exercised, is to infix in him an acquaintance with the peculiar interests of that locality, to the end that in a popular government, he may be the better enabled to represent and protect those interests, and also to prevent frauds in voting attempted by a pretended change of residence. For, when the real and bona fide residents may be subjected to a sudden and temporary irruption of a wandering horde of unsettled sojourners, who come merely to seek a pretended home that they may overrule and crush the true and cherished interests of the settled and abiding citizens, and having done this to watch for another opportunity, and depart to accomplish that, the consequence is no less destructive of the right of suffrage than that which follows an army employed to overpower and destroy the votes of a free people by scattering its movable troops wherever corruption and depravity can be most available to defeat the ends of constitutional liberty.

The object and effect of this lawless conspiracy against constitutional government, is to accomplish a fraud upon the benefit of the great franchise of popular liberty by wicked and false pretenses, and can never receive the sanction of law, so long as law shall be interpreted in the aid of the great right of suffrage.

I am also requested to give my opinion as to the best means of avoiding such frauds upon the elective franchise whenever it shall be attempted. I would suggest that every person suspected of attempting it should be challenged at the polls, and the right of voting tried by the poll holders, who are the judges of the qualification of voters and may hear evidence affecting the question. As a general rule innocence of fraud is to be presumed; and therefore when a person has long occupied a particular location this is presumed to be his residence, but when he has but recently occupied it, there is no such presumption especially if he is an intruder on the premises and has recently become so without any color of right from the owner of them. A man who knowingly and lawfully squats on the premises of another cannot be deemed a resident, domiciled in a home, as defined in Roberts v. Cannon.

Mrs. F. Morrell, Bangor Me., July 2, 1877, writes: "Six months ago my friends thought me in a decline, suffering from Weakness, Blood and Stomach and Fever. The doctor gave me no benefit. I was persuaded to try Compound Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator; after using three bottles I began to improve, and today feel perfectly well."

OBITUARY.

NIE, THE LITTLE ANGEL.

Dear little Nannie, child of hope and [illegible]
Just budding into childhood's sweet grace,
With all its charms and beauteous enchantments,
Now blossoming in thy radiant beaming face.
How could we bear to see Death bury thee low?
How could we bear, dear heart, to let thee go?

So suddenly the summons came, beloved one!
With just a clutching after dying hands—
A kiss that on thy lips like a relic—
And thou hast joined the shadowy angel bands,
And while we wept o'er thy unconscious clay.
Thy soul was rising to eternal day.

With gift of friends, we filled thy warm fingers
With fragrant blooms, thy snowy brow we crowned;
We prayed thy pillow might be Jesus' bosom.
That everlasting arm might clasp there round.
That love more sweet than mother's love might bless
Our daughter, unite to kindreds fond caress.

We laid within the yawning grave our [illegible]

Oh, little Nannie, crowning choicest blessings
For the while with us shall we darer pine,
That now beyond all reach of sin and sorrow
The shining days of father's boy are thine,
For though oblivion's gloom, may veil thy tomb—
Faith tells us Heaven has given little Nannie room.

Forestalling Disease.

When we see that death is so often the penalty paid for a fatuous disregard of the first symptoms of approaching disease, should we not be warned against the folly of neglecting defensive measures when called for in our own case? Assuredly we should, and upon the first manifestation of ill health the decay of physical vigor, seek the aid of medicine. The fortifying influence upon the system of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters entitle that medicine of many virtues to the highest consideration as a preventive, and it cannot be too strongly recommended as a means of arresting the progress of malarious fevers, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, kidney and bladder troubles, gout, rheumatism, and other disorders which in their incipiency are far more easily overcome than in their maturity—albeit, the great alterative has repeatedly demonstrated its power to vanquish their worst phases.
